

Bulb Sachet Ornament

Designed by Julie A. Bolduc

This sachet ornament would look great done in a solid color as well as a variegated thread. You can stuff it with polyester stuffing as shown in the photo, then infuse it with a spray scent, or you can stuff it with potpourri. If you have an artificial tree, and you have any access to fir trees, you could cut a few tips off the branches of the tree and use the needles to stuff it.

Materials Needed

Small amount size 10 crochet cotton. Southmaid Christmas Variegated was used in the example.

RND 14: Rep rnd 11. Fasten off and weave the end around the bottom and draw up tight to close. Weave the end into work then trim. Use the starting end as a hanger for the ornament. Just weave the end in to secure but leave a small loop for attaching the ornament hanger with.
DONE

* NOTE: Cut just the tips from the branches of the fir tree, this will actually help make the tree fuller because every where you "tip" the tree, you will get more than one new branch that comes out. You can dry the needles on a baking sheet in a low oven for 8 hours or if you have a gas stove, they will dry in 24 hours with just the pilot light.
